

Disclaimer of warranty

All technical publications of AIGA or bearing AIGA's name contain information, including Codes of practice, safety procedures and any other technical information that were obtained from sources believed by AIGA to be reliable and/or are based on technical information and experience currently available from members of AIGA and others at the date of their issuance. As such, we do not make any representation or warranty nor accept any liability as to the accuracy, completeness or correctness of the information contained in these publications. This disclaimer also includes the presentation matter, pictures and videos used in AIGA safety seminars and webinars.

While AIGA recommends that its members refer to or use its publications, such reference to or use thereof by its members or third parties is purely voluntary and not binding.

AIGA or its members make no guarantee of the results and assume no liability or responsibility in connection with the reference to or use of information or suggestions contained in AIGA's publications.

AIGA has no control whatsoever as regards, performance or non performance, misinterpretation, proper or improper use of any information or suggestions contained in AIGA's publications by any person or entity (including AIGA members) and AIGA expressly disclaims any liability in connection thereto.

AIGA's publications are subject to periodic review and users are cautioned to obtain the latest edition.
